

森の中で、命のやりとりに出会う。

Enjoy wild game, a winter delicacy, and experience winter life in the remotest mountain village of Kyoto

Walk the village in the remotest part of Kyoto where traditional thatched-roof houses remain, and experience the way of life in winter as passed down among generations in the mountain village. With an initial lesson by a local hunter, learn the wisdom in living with nature by experiencing hunting and cutting, cooking and then enjoying the wild game, to fully sense the blessings of the mountains.

7-8 February (Sat. - Sun.) 2015, 2 days/1 night

Participation fee :6,500 (per person)

Accepted applicants: 10

※January 15 is the deadline for applications. In case of too many applications, we will hold a draw for place allocation.

※Conditions for Participation

Tourists with non-Japanese nationality visiting Japan or foreign residents in Japan. * Those who are healthy, able to manage oneself and able to communicate with other participants and local people. Generally 20 years old or older.

Apply <http://goo.gl/rPGOyL> or Could you send me your information by E-mail

※ Your Information : Name · Gender · Age · Food allergy (Allergen) · Address · Nationality · Telephone number

[For Inquiries and Applications] ※ Please make inquiries by e-mail.

NPO Ecotourism Japan Contact: Yuko Inoue desk@ecotourism-center.jp

Yaseifukkikei.inc Contact: Masaki Aota info@yaseifukki.jp

